New Coins In Bulgaria Are Crumbling Into Dust

Tatar-Pzardik, Bulgaria, Oct. 7.—A commission from the Ministry at Sofia has been sent here to investigate a peculiar phenomenon in the local branch of the Bulgarian National Bank—the crumbling of metallic currency, either to a thin scum-like film or else to mere dust.

The currency was minted abroad less than a year ago. Specialists believe the aluminum coins contain too much zinc, which disintegrates.

Bank officials are alarmed at the prospect that the entire issue of 100,000,000 leva may disintegrate.

BRITISH PREMIER SCORES COMMUNISM IN ADDRESS AT LABOR PARTY MEETING

London, Oct. 7.—Premier MacDonald, addressing the annual conference of the Labor Party, which opened in Queen's Hall here to-day, confirmed the overnight indications that the Government purposes resisting both the vote of censure advanced by the Conservatives and the Liberal amendment proposing an inquiry into the circumstances under which sedition charges against a Communist editor were recently abandoned.

Mr. MacDonald indicated the Government would not shrink from a dissolution and an election if put to the test, and declared the responsibility for an election would not be on the Labor Party.

235 LABORITES TO SEEK ELECTION TO BRITISH COMMONS

London, Oct. 7.—Addressing the twenty-fourth annual conference of the Labor Party at its opening in Queen's Hall to-day, Premier MacDonald, head of Britain's Labor Government, scored Communism, which he declared had in its nothing practicable.

"It is a product of Capitalism and war," he said, "and as such we will have nothing to do with it. Unless we are prepared to engage in war against this, we had better put up our shutters."

After making his declaration against Communism the Premier expressed the hope that Labor men most eminent in Great Britain and in other countries would not be induced to fall into the Communist trap and thus render countenance to one of the ordinary excuses by which capitalism was always seeking to increase its grip on the lives of the workers.

The Premier's speech had been heralded as likely to throw a great deal of light on the present political situation in Great Britain and to clarify to some extent Labor's attitude toward the votes of censure which are to be moved in Parliament by the Conservatives and Liberals.

LIFE FOR LIFE IS OUTWORN BRUTAL LAW OF OLD JUDEA SAYS COUNSEL FOR DR. BOAK

Impassioned Plea for Acquittal of Accused Heard From Lips of H. A. Maclean, Counsel for Defence in Manslaughter Case.

After ten consecutive days of evidence the hearing of Rex versus Boak in the Assize Court this morning reached the stage of address by counsel to the jury. H. A. Maclean, K. C., opened for the defence, and was still on his feet at the luncheon recess, M. B. Jackson, K. C., Crown counsel, will follow, and then will come the charge by Mr. Justice Murphy to the jury. It is not expected the case will go to the jury much before to-night or to-morrow morning.

FOR THE DEFENCE In opening, Mr. Maclean remarked on the extended length of the trial and observed that "nothing became it so much as the end." The Crown, he said, had brought down an avalanche of witnesses in the two and a half weeks of hearing, with the result, he would urge, that the jury knew no more to-day about how the two men met, death than they did at the opening of the hearing.

The fact was, he said, that there was no direct evidence on the part of the Crown to show how Mr. Bal-lantine and Mr. McLachlan came to their end. There was a mass of evidence which the Crown was pleased to call circumstantial, but not a single direct fact yet adduced as to how the fatality had taken place.

There might be a tremendous weight of suspicion against a man and yet that man might be entirely innocent of the affair. A man could only meet circumstantial evidence by his own testimony. That of Dr. Boak had been direct and clear. It had been the only direct evidence as to his actions in the hearing. Dr. Boak had been corroborated by the testimony of the parties in both cases. They had heard nothing, seen nothing, and felt nothing. The whole affair had happened in a flash.

Counsel for the defence referred the jury to the Book of Deuteronomy, at Chapter six, wherein passages, he said, showed that the people of old dealt with the doctrine of a life for a life. The old law had taken no account of accidental killings, but was hard and fixed, a life for a life. That had been a brutal, savage law, but had been mitigated to the extent that in Judea six cities had been set aside as places of refuge. Pursued by the avenger of blood, man might take refuge in the Judean city, and this (Concluded on page 2)

FRUIT SELLING INQUIRY BEING BROUGHT TO END

Report is to be Presented in Ottawa Several Weeks Hence

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—The field investigation into the alleged combine in fruit marketing is understood to be practically completed, but it is likely to be some weeks before Commissioner Lewis Duncan presents his report.

The Nash chain of fruit houses, which is under investigation, has its head office in Winnipeg and has connections in all parts of Canada, except the Maritime Provinces. The existence of the organization is admitted, but the issue under investigation is whether it constitutes such a harmful restriction of trade as to bring it within the definition "combine" under the Combines Investigation Act.

Eats Heartily Now

G.N.E. trainman suffered from digestive troubles. Now he can eat a hearty meal with pleasure and gives the credit to Dreco.

Mr. J. Henderson, of Brandon, Man., has found in Dreco, a wonderfully effective tonic and corrective. His troubles were largely digestive and brought about, no doubt, by irregular meals and varying diets incident to his occupation as a C.N.R. trainman.

"I suffered for a long time from stomach trouble," says Mr. Henderson. "Everything I ate would sour and form a gas which was very distressing and took away my appetite.

"That this condition is relieved is due to the fact that I have been taking Dreco. I have used three bottles of it and must say that it has made me feel 100% better. I can now eat and enjoy a hearty meal without suffering from gas or sourness afterwards and feel all the better for the proper nourishment I am now receiving from my food."

If your stomach and other digestive organs are right, you feel right. Your body is properly nourished by the tissue-building values in the good food you eat and waste is properly eliminated. Put your digestive system in proper working order with Dreco. This famous herbal remedy is safe and reliable and contains no mercury, potash or habit-forming drugs.

HAIG MAY VISIT B.C. NEXT SUMMER

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—A visit to British Columbia next summer by Earl and Countess Haig is in prospect with the announcement by the Dominion command of the Great War Veterans' Association that an invitation to attend the second biennial conference of the British Empire Service League, to be held in Ottawa next June, has been extended to the Field-Marshal.

Walter Drinnan, secretary-treasurer of the B.C. provincial command of the G.W.V.A., stated to-day that the organization hopes to have Earl and Countess Haig make a tour of the entire Dominion following the Empire Service League's meeting in Ottawa. It was thought that the next conference of the league would be held in Australia, but dispatches had been received by the G.W.V.A. Dominion command over the week-end to the effect that the Empire headquarters advisory committee had unanimously agreed that the next assembly should be held in Canada.

SAYS ALL CANADA'S RAILWAYS NEEDED

J. H. Fortier, Quebec, Urges New Efforts to Build up Country

Toronto, Oct. 7.—J. H. Fortier of Quebec, first vice-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, declared to members of the Toronto Transportation Club yesterday that Canadians had reason to be proud of their transportation system. It had been conceived and executed by the best brains the country had produced.

"To-day Canada stands first among the countries of the world in proportion of railway mileage to population, having one mile of railway to every 210 persons, and fourth in actual railway mileage, with 39,772 miles of railway," said Mr. Fortier, who then referred to the fact that railways were only a part of the transportation system.

"Canada stood seventh among maritime nations, with 7,452 vessels on the registry of shipping. There were seventeen canal systems, which permitted penetration into the interior by vessel and also connect inland points.

"Build up Canada. Develop our own resources. Increase our production. Manufacture our raw materials here. Keep the people here who are engaged in industry. Bring more in to take the products that they create. Do this and we shall not have to worry about our transportation system. Before long it will not be large enough."

ELECTION IN U.S. ONE MONTH HENCE

Much Speculation as Presidential Contest Swings Into Concluding Stage

Washington, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press)—Survey of the political prospects for the coming election, though it leaves much to be desired in the way of definite knowledge of what the voters will do, points to the election of President Coolidge or throwing of the election into the House. On the basis of the present conditions, John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee, does not seem to be a winner. The Republican leaders are strenuously claiming the election of President Coolidge as certain, but the more astute of them are fearful of the strength of La Follette in the West.

Coolidge at this time has a lead over Davis in the East. On the other hand, La Follette is strong in the West. In the country from the Mississippi to the Pacific Coast, opinion is divided whether he will get enough electoral votes in that country to make it impossible for Coolidge to win in the Electoral College and thus throw the election to the House. What seems the most probable outcome is that the Republican organization, which is powerful and well-financed, will be able in the next month to strengthen itself enough in the West to elect Coolidge and keep the election from the House. But this

SMITH NOMINATION

Some Democratic leaders believe the nomination of Al Smith for Governor of New York has greatly strengthened the chances for Davis and that here long conservative business interests will turn to Davis and away from Coolidge on the theory that the only way to keep the election out of the House is to choose Davis, as a possibility, but the probabilities are against it.

Will the La Follette strength in the West advance or recede between now and November? Republican chiefs say it will recede, but this is a guess. La Follette has just entered on his speaking campaign and if his health permits him to carry it through he is likely to make converts to his own cause. Recession of La Follette strength cannot be taken for granted—that much is certain. Hard work by Republican organizations may overcome it in some of the close states.

U.S. NOW RECEIVES FEW IMMIGRANTS

Tide of Newcomers Has Almost Ceased Under the New Law

Washington, Oct. 7.—Despite much complaint against the drastic new law against the immigration law which was passed at the last session of Congress, there is no prospect of its relaxation. This is the opinion of Representative Albert Johnson of the State of Washington, who is chairman of the House Immigration Committee.

Representative Johnson says there is more or less smuggling of immigrants across the Canadian and Mexican borders, but he does not think there is any more than usual. In fact, he believes smuggling under the new law, and with an increased force of inspectors and agents along the border has been made more difficult. He pointed out to-day that under the new law the burden of proof is on the person entering the country to show he has been lawfully admitted. He can be apprehended in this country by authorities at any time and place and unless he can show he is lawfully in the country is subject to deportation.

Representative Johnson said immigration to this country now was almost at a standstill.

While the new quota is but two per cent on the basis of the 1899 census, Mr. Johnson says this is enough. He declares that in twenty-five years more the population of the United States will have increased to 40,000,000 and will be over 150,000,000 and he believes that when this fact is considered the United States should go slowly in the admission of large numbers of immigrants. He expects no important legislation on immigration the coming winter, but does expect new naturalization legislation.

BRITISH BOYS FOR FARMS IN ALBERTA

Party to Sail From Old Country Oct. 17; to be Trained at Vermilion

London, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press Cable)—The first party of boys from Great Britain going to Canada under the plan of the Alberta Government to train at the Provincial Agricultural School, Vermilion, to become farmers with a view to their settling in that province will sail on the steamship Megantic on October 17. Some of the boys are from first-class schools here. They will make the trip under the assisted passage scheme of the Overseas Settlement Commission. Winston Churchill, British Minister of Agriculture, entered into an agreement with the Alberta Government to assist the settlement of the boys of eighteen and twenty-five who would be assisted financially in migrating to Alberta to learn farming. The suggestion of Mr. Hoadley was that under the scheme 150 young men would be eligible for the proposed training.

SAYS ORDER MUST BE KEPT IN FRANCE

Minister of Interior Explains Enforcement of Anti-clerical Legislation

Tours, France, Oct. 7.—The growing agitation in France against strict application of anti-clerical legislation was denounced by Minister of the Interior Chaumets in a speech here. "The Government is responsible for the maintenance of peace in the interior and its duty is to invite agitators to reflect and to warn them solemnly that however lightly placed they may be, they will not be allowed to disturb the public order with impunity," he said.

Continuing, he charged that under the cover of sacred unions, congregations were being reconstructed in France with an amplitude recalling that of 1900 and notwithstanding the former assurance of the Holy See to the French Ambassador. "I have just ordered an inquiry made in every department into the activities of the congregations. Their record will be laid open to the country and the attention of all republicans will be aroused."

NO CONFERENCE OF EMPIRE DELEGATES

Political Events in Britain Believed to Have Ended Plan

Canadian Minister of Defence to Meet J. H. Thomas in London

London, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press Cable)—The political developments of the last week in Great Britain have strengthened the impression that the Empire conference proposed by Colonial Secretary Thomas for the discussion of matters of interest to the Mother Country and the Dominions, which met with a lukewarm reception by the Dominions, can not now be held.

Hon. E. M. Macdonald, Canadian Minister of Defence, will meet Mr. Thomas to-day, but the meeting has little connection with the proposed conference.

TAX-FREE BONDS

He criticized the previous Government for issuing tax-free bonds, and said that had they been issued even for shorter terms they could have been recalled gradually, but as it was, some ran to 1937 with high rates of interest.

His Government, he said, had saved from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 a year in interest alone through the recent re-issuing loans.

He urged unity and co-operation between the Liberals and Progressives on the common ground of their mutual opposition to the principles of Conservatism.

BELCOURT WOULD BE WELCOMED IN CAPITAL OF U.S.

His Appointment as Canadian Ambassador Would Be Popular One

Government of U.S. Ready to Send Representative to Ottawa

Washington, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press)—Reports that Senator Napoleon Belcourt has been offered the post of Canadian Ambassador to the United States are said to have good authority here. It is well founded. Information as to whether Senator Belcourt will accept is lacking. Some doubt as to whether he will accept the post, in view of his position as Senator, is expressed by those who know him.

It is said unofficially the appointment of Senator Belcourt would be agreeable to the United States Government, which would gladly see an exchange of ambassadors between Canada and the United States.

FEDERAL PREMIER VISITS SASKATOON

King Spoke in Brandon Last Night; Crowd so Large Overflow Meeting Held

Brandon, Oct. 7.—Premier King, now making a tour of Western Canada, addressed a capacity audience in the city hall here last night. Afterwards, starting at 11 p.m., he addressed an overflow meeting.

After the second meeting he and his party left for Saskatoon. The Premier appealed to his audiences on terms of performance, and not, as on previous visits, on those of promise. "The Government had not finished its work, but its opportunities would depend on the support it was able to get."

He reviewed the accomplishments of the administration, pointing out some of the difficulties in the way of national debt, heavy liabilities, disturbing post-war conditions and lack of a clear parliamentary majority, and despite all these things he was able to outline heavy reductions in national expenditures, a balanced budget and a surplus last year, improvement in trade, lower taxes and general improvement in conditions.

For the first time since Confederation every province was represented in the Federal Cabinet. He was determined to put an end to divisions between East and West, which were dangerous to the national welfare and to divisions between classes. If Western Canada prospered all Canada prospered and if conditions were bad in the West the whole country suffered.

The Premier advised one step at a time, getting something done every day, and for the time being the Government had decided that the construction of branch railroad lines where they were needed by existing settlers was most essential. "We want," he added, "to see the Hudson Bay Railway reconstructed and completed as soon as financial conditions permit."

At the present time he did not believe any government in Canada could raise more than $400,000,000 annually in taxation.

He urged unity and co-operation between the Liberals and Progressives on the common ground of their mutual opposition to the principles of Conservatism. "The forces of those who think liberally and progressively are united from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there is going to be a long term of Liberal and Progressive administration. But, if divided, we come to face the forces of high protection, which are never divided when the need arises, then we may have an even longer period to regret the mistake we have made. Names were secondary, he declared, and a party was only an instrument to an end. "We are told," added the Premier, "that what has been done by this Government in the way of tariff reduction has been done under pressure of Western Progressives. That is not true. It was done because we are seeking to carry out honorably promises we made to the people of Canada and to put into practice the Liberal platform of 1919. Robert Forke, leader of the Progressives, was in the audience at the first meeting."

FARMERS' OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS

THE GRAIN-GROWER ON this continent is either an object of pity or of envy. In wartime he was on a pinnacle of independence.

Now his condition is changing again as the pendulum is swinging the other way. This week has started with wheat on the Canadian market selling at sixty-two cents a bushel more than it was a year ago.

High prices that are now within the farmer's grasp will mean that the rest of the country will have to pay a little more for its bread and other foodstuffs.

The Prince's visit to the United States has probably broken all records for quantity of publicity.

A FINE YEAR

DURING THE SUMMER months of last year 1510 automobiles registered at the Auto Tourist Camp at Curtis Point.

These figures need no explanation. They demonstrate beyond all question the value of the camp and more than justify every cent expended upon its establishment.

Of very considerable importance to Victoria, apart from the bulk of business and what it means in the immediate material sense, is the fact that the Victoria Auto Camp, as shown by the source of origin of its patrons, is now well advertised in six Canadian provinces and thirty-one American states.

This is additional proof that, in proportion to the amount of money expended, this locality's best investment is publicity.

IN A DILEMMA

FOR SEVERAL WEEKS past British Liberals and British Conservatives have been preparing themselves for the defeat of the MacDonald Government.

While these plans have been maturing, however, the general public and the press in particular have reached the conclusion that the one thing to be avoided at the present juncture is a general election.

erment. The Liberals give it their blessing in part and find themselves in agreement with the Conservatives on many points.

Liberals and Conservatives undoubtedly recognize the danger of forcing the Government to the country on any issue which most people do not consider vital.

There is, moreover, a large volume of public opinion in the Old Country which insists upon giving the Labor Government a fair trial.

POLICE CONTROL

BEFORE CONSOLIDATING the police organizations of the whole or any part of parts of the Province it will be necessary to consider the question of such a procedure and its possible effect upon law and order from more than one standpoint.

Inability to prevent serious crime, or track culprits for crimes already committed, has been responsible for a number of investigations of police administration in several centres in this country.

The press clipping bureau, which has been collecting the newspaper stories written about his recent visit to Long Island, has completed its work, which took twenty-two experts fourteen days working night and day, going over practically every newspaper published in the United States and Canada.

CHOOSING A NAME I have not a new-born sister, was nigh the first that kissed her; When the nursing woman brought her, To pop a name on her.

Now I wonder what would please her—Charlotte, Julia, or Louisa? Ann and Mary, they're too common; Joan's too formal for a woman; Jane's a prettier name beside; But we had a Jane that died.

Edith's pretty, but that looks better in old English books; Ellen's left off long ago; Blanche is out of fashion now; None that I have named as yet Are so good as Margaret; Emily is neat and fine; What do you think of Caroline?

How I'm puzzled and perplexed What to choose or think of next; I am in a little fever; Let the name that I should give her Should disgrace her, or defame her.

"A Shifting Instrument"

THE intellect, for all that may be said of it, is a frail reed to lean upon.

It is a question whether it is governed more by traditions, customs, instincts and passions than by reason. Certain it is that unless there be some check upon the reason it is liable to lead us into all kinds of dunnets.

This was brought out by one of the experts in the Leopold and Loeb trial. "The idea," said he, "for these master criminals was to do a good job. It was to be thoroughly and completely planned. There was to be no other intellectual feat was to be accomplished."

In fact the whole Leopold-Loeb case shows what the unaided intellect, solely depended upon, will lead us to. Unless there are sound instincts, underlying natural repulsions and attractions, that hold us to the ways of humanity and to decent conduct, the intelligence is liable to lead us astray.

Whether the plea of mental deficiency, or moral deficiency, is a good one on the part of young Leopold and Loeb we do not presume to say, but we do dare to assert that a man is safest in sticking to the great moralities which he has inherited from the race.

STONE CREEK—What historic event is recalled at Stone Creek?

Q.—What is the name of the Stoney Creek (near Hamilton), in June, 1812, was one of the battles for the British and Canadian forces that was of far-reaching importance, when a small force repulsed a larger invading one, and thereby saved the Western part of the Province from capture.

FINE RECITAL BY MUSIC STUDENTS OF DOMINION ACADEMY

A large assembly of parents and friends of the students of the Dominion Academy of Music spent a delightful evening on Saturday last, in witnessing the success of the tuition of Madame Kate Webb, the principal and her assistants. The programme comprised twenty-seven items. Special mention must be made of the vocal recital made up of the songs, "Morning" and "Tosti's Goodbye," gaining a well-deserved encore, and Miss Margaret Griffin, who has a voice of great promise. Prominent among the pianists was Miss Flora Allan, who received a vociferous encore for her clever solos, and Miss Rachel Keeler, who was similarly honored. Other much appreciated solos were given by Mrs. Hodges, the Misses Ozida, Goyette, Audrey Hammond, Sylvia Boydell, Audrey Wood, Violet Kirby, Jean MacKenzie, Florence Griffiths, Margaret Watson, Winifred Green, Doris Smith, Doris Bennett and Mary Cleland. The Master Alec Weinman, Mr. Lambert Colomby, pupil of Mr. William Tickle, provided a real musical treat with his violin solos, receiving an ovation to which he responded with two encores. At the close of the programme Madame Webb announced that Mrs. MacLure has joined the staff and will assist with the piano-forte lessons and that Mr. William Tickle is now in charge of the violin department.

ROYALTY MEASURE TAXES WAGES

1914 ACT IMPERILS SIXTY MILLION DOLLAR PAY-ROLL Present Act at Variance With Real Principle of Royalty

ABOUT the very last thing a Royalty Act should tax is wages. Yet the present measure, by taxing all the factors that enter into the cost of production places a heavy impost on wages which is, of course, the greatest of all these factors.

The true purpose of the Timber Royalties Act of British Columbia should be to take care of the public's equity in its standing timber. If that timber gets more valuable the public should benefit accordingly. The equity of the public in the forest stops when the trees are felled. After that they become private property. Any further taxation of the raw or manufactured article should certainly not be on a royalty basis. A Royalty Act which impedes any process of manufacture is unfair and illogical.

British Columbia has done, and will continue to do, very well indeed out of its standing timber, which has contributed $45,000,000 to the public revenue in twenty years. British Columbia has also attracted to it an investment of $200,000,000 by an industrial group that paid out $66,000,000 in wages last year alone.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8

Conflicting forces dominate on this day, according to the alderer operations. While there is prospect of opportunity for beneficial change, removal or journey, yet the cause may be rashly disposed or impulsive—which would invite disaster. Also the mind may be inclined to be morose, sullen or perhaps stubborn, with an inclination to worry over trifles. However, there is the promise of encouragement and assistance from good friends or advisors of power.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of advantageous change or travel, if they will but suppress rash and impulsive tendencies and refrain from petty worries. They may count on the assistance and wise counsel of good and powerful friends. Sign papers cautiously and beware of fraud.

A child born on this day, although inclined to be rash and headstrong, will rise in life to good position and enjoy the benefits of the interest and counsel of kindly and well-disposed friends.

DEFENCE RESTS IN MANSLAUGHTER CASE JURY VIEWS GROUND

Jury Spends an Hour at Site of Double Fatality on North Quadra Street

The close of the case for the defence and a view of the scene of the accident were the main features in the afternoon session yesterday of the tenth day of the trial of Rex versus Boak.

Dr. E. W. Boak, after three hours of cross-examination in the morning session, vacated the witness stand for the prisoner's dock. After one more witness for the defence, the court adjourned to the accident site and went over the ground, known previously only by plans and maps in exhibit.

Under guard of the sheriff the jury were shown the topography of the country, and compared the actual scene with the sketches before them. Chief Brogan, of the Saanich force, was asked to trace the path of the Boak car in the east ditch. The Balianyne, Service and other homes mentioned in the evidence were pointed out on the ground.

Just before rising to take the view of the ground Mr. Jackson asked leave to call Dr. Wasson as to a "breakdown" at the accident scene, which, said crown counsel, the prosecution was prepared to assert had been mentioned by Dr. Boak.

Mr. Maclean protested that Dr. Wasson could not be heard in evidence on this point by way of rebuttal when the defence had no hand in introducing the evidence. Rebuttal evidence, he said, could arise only on points adduced by the defence.

The prosecution pointed out Mr. Justice Murphy could have called Dr. Wasson to testify as to a fact, then why not as to a statement of a fact made, or alleged to be made, by the accused? Mr. Maclean held his ground, and intimated that he would reserve his objection to such a course.

All the defence witnesses of the two car parties, said Mr. Jackson, had testified that there was no breakdown. He proposed to produce a witness who was told by Dr. Boak himself that there had been a breakdown, asserted counsel for the Crown.

At this stage the court adjourned to the accident scene. The jury were driven out by the sheriff in charge of sheriff's guard. Counsel were each given an opportunity of taking the jury over the ground. The examination of the site proceeded until 4 p.m. when the court adjourned until this morning, to resume at the Bastion Street quarters.

Witness was cross-examined by M. B. Jackson, K.C., crown counsel, on the principle of the gyroscope and other matters. The Duck car, said witness in reply to questions, would have to have made a speed of forty miles an hour to upset. The Boak car, he intimated, had traveled on a "bumpy" upsetting angle.

Witness was asked to compute an contour map, the speed at which the Duck car would have to have moved to have jumped clear into the air for a linear distance of twenty feet. Witness said the car could jump twelve feet with a maximum rise of ten inches at a speed of sixty miles an hour. It could jump the same distance at twenty-seven and a fraction miles an hour if it were allowed to rise three feet at the maximum height of its parabola, he continued.

All Steel

Adopted for Greater Safety and Lasting Beauty—

In an age of steel—with bridges of steel—ships of steel and trains of steel—with steel the foundation of modern transportation, Overland adopts for greater safety and lasting beauty an all-steel body.

While most motor car bodies are skeletons of wood with sheets of steel nailed outside, Overland's body is solid steel—a frame of steel covered with steel—welded into one piece solidity.

Only an all-steel body takes an everlasting baked enamel finish, and you can scrub an Overland's baked enamel finish with strong chemicals used to remove road tar, or—you can turn the scorching flame of a blow-torch on it without marring its gleaming beauty. It keeps its looks with age.

And with all this strength and permanent beauty are linked big power—great economy—dependability and 23 big-car quality advantages, unmatched at anywhere near the price. See this all-steel Overland. Drive it in traffic or over the hills.

DEPORTATION THREATENS MEN CAUGHT WITH LIQUOR CARGO ABOARD LAUNCH LAST SUNDAY

Police Officers Relate facts Concerning Capture of Eva B., Her Company of Three and 700 Cases of Mixed Liquor Cargo; Boat May Be Sold, and Her Captain Deported, Immigration Department Says.

Capt. Jack Rhodes, Engineer Erickson and Mr. Green, the latter a passenger, the other two the operators of the Eva B., an American bootleg craft captured by Canadian Customs officials and Provincial Police officers on Sunday, stood before a board of inquiry yesterday afternoon immediately on their arrival here, and are to-day out on a $250 cash bond. This inquiry was conducted by F. W. Davey, of the Customs Department here, but was only of a primary nature.

"We questioned the men who were captured by Capt. Bittancourt and his companions aboard the Winnimac on Sunday last, in an attempt to gain from them some reason for their having been found in Canadian waters. What information they gave us was not sufficiently plausible, nor was it satisfactory. Therefore they have been turned over to the Immigration Department," Mr. Davey told The Times this morning.

PLEASED AT CAPTURE

He also expressed himself as very pleased with the capture of 700 cases of liquor which Capt. Bittancourt's launch made, which, it is believed, being a mixed cargo, is worth in the neighborhood of $4,000. Other customs officials state that it was one of the most adroitly made seizures ever made by local men, and that Capt. Bittancourt and all those who accompanied him are deserving of high praise.

The Eva B. is one of the many high-powered launches operating in the waters of the Gulf of Georgia, running liquor from the Canadian to the American side, and as the territory is wide in which these boats are known to be present, and there being thousands of hidden little nooks where they might avoid the eyes of half a hundred Government boats, it is a feather in the caps of the men who took her.

BACK TO STATION

Capt. Bittancourt, whose craft it was which was responsible for the seizure, will proceed to Ganges Harbor to continue his operations. Those men who accompanied him previously left Victoria this morning on the C.P.R. steamship Chamer.

The more important inquiry will sit to-morrow, it was announced by S. N. Reid of the Immigration Department this morning, although, he stated to The Times, there may be delays for Chinese cases are taking up a great deal of the officials' time. The men, it is understood, are subject to deportation, and if this is carried into the bay and came slowly towards the Winnimac. The Government men immediately prepared to defend their prize, and Constable Rogers fired across the strange's bows by way of warning. His fire was unheeded by the newcomer.

Immediately diving that the strange craft was a hi-jacker, and that they would of necessity have to repel an attack, the Government men opened fire. After a few short minutes, which passed with amazing rapidity, the hi-jacker drew away and eventually flashed into the open water at a terrific rate of speed. The officers were reticent in their account of this affair.

During the encounter the Eva B. lay on that side of the Winnimac farthest from the wharf. She was not directly in the line of fire, but would have been a protection had the fight developed into an ardent gun duel.

SCOTTISH SETTLERS WOULD COME HERE

T. R. Abbott, Immigration Agent, Says Thousands Willing to Migrate

Quebec, Oct. 7.—That there are thousands of Scotch people desirous of coming to Canada but who are prevented from so doing on account of the hard times existing at present in their own country, was the opinion expressed by T. R. Abbott, an immigration agent of Scotland, on board the Canadian Pacific liner Montreal, which docked here yesterday morning from Glasgow and Belfast.

The Scotch people, Mr. Abbott said, are fully aware of the opportunities which Canada offers for bonnie settlements where they are willing to devote themselves seriously to the cultivation of the soil. There are plenty of farmers in Scotland anxious to settle in Canada, but they hesitate about doing so without having the necessary capital to start them in life here on a farm of their own. Mr. Abbott, who is accompanied by Mrs. Abbott, brought over a party of fifty Scotch immigrants, amongst whom were several families. A large majority of these settlers are going to the Prairie Provinces.

The immigration agent intends making a tour of Canada, during which he will get first-hand information on actual conditions which have to be faced by the settlers. Another party of fifty women and children, including wives of British settlers and a number of domestic workers in Ontario, arrived on the Montreal in charge of Lieut.-Colonel J. G. Jackson, financial secretary of the Salvation Army. Col. Jackson with Brig.-General Pinchin will join Commissioner Lamb, who arrived here on the C.P.S.S. Embury of France, on his lecturing tour of Canada.

SOON READY FOR SEA AGAIN

The Pacific Salvage Company will put this vessel in proper repair and the Victoria Machinery Depot will furnish the contract, estimated at $125,000. The Tatjana was wrecked last February but inside two months she will once again be ready for sea. She will go into drydock on October 20, according to information received to-day.

TATJANA TO BE REPAIRED AT COST OF $125,000 BY LOCAL SHIP-REPAIR FIRM

Norwegian Freighter Wrecked at Village Island Last February Will Be Sold or Operated by Pacific Salvage Company; Repair Work Will Take Forty Days.

One of the biggest contracts to be let this year to local firms in the marine repair business, was announced by the Pacific Salvage Company this morning. The Tatjana, which has been lying for many months at the old Chemical Works wharf near the Brackman-Kerr Milling Company plant, will be overhauled by the Victoria Machinery Depot, put into first class condition and then either offered for sale or operated by the Pacific Salvage Company.

Repairs entail the expenditure of approximately $125,000, it was announced this morning. One hundred and ten plates will be renewed, ten keel plates will be taken off and replaced, and about 200 frames will be straightened and renewed.

Taking everything into account the job on the Tatjana will last for probably something over forty days. Big gangs of day laborers will be put on the ship, and steel plate workers will swarm over her hull, rivetting her sides and bottom.

Mr. Maclean's speech was given by the evidence given by the avalanche of witnesses. Word by word he had retraced the path of the verbal avalanche, and stone by stone did counsel for the defence wrestle with its burden of testimony. He was still on his feet when the luncheon hour was reached and will resume this afternoon.

It is expected that between 8,000 and 10,000 people will be able not only to hear, but see the Premier in the Arena itself, and many thousands more to hear it as carried through the atmosphere by radio.

Tientsin, Oct. 7.—The armies of General Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian leader, and Peking Government troops to-day were carrying on an intensive battle for possession of Shanhaikwan, in Northern Chihli Province, which is held by Peking forces.

The Chang airmen and surface Chinese poured shells inside the great fortress of Shanhaikwan, which is considered an impregnable barrier of defence against Manchurian and Mongolian invaders.

As the bombardment continued, the Manchurian troops were unable to withstand the fire returned by the Peking troops and were forced to retreat to new positions.

REINFORCEMENTS SENT. ARREST OF TWO CANADIANS NOW SOUGHT BY U.S. Prohibition Officials Wish to Proceed Against Officer of One of Banks.

New York, Oct. 7. (Canadian Press)—An officer of a Canadian bank may be arrested in connection with the rum running plot believed unearthed by United States prohibition authorities through the capture of the British steamer Frederick B. last Friday night.

John Holley Clark, assistant United States attorney, who is preparing libel proceedings against the steamer, which carried a cargo of rum, said to-day: "We have evidence against large bootleggers in the United States and Canada, and there is also a Canadian bank which was used in this case. One of the officers of that bank may be arrested."

Federal officials waited to-day on Washington for extradition papers authorizing the arrest of a rich Canadian, as yet unnamed, who is said to be the backer of the alleged smuggling syndicate which authorities believe operated the Frederick B. as one of its fleet of four rum runners.

WENT TO MONTREAL. The Canadian backer of the syndicate is said to have fled to Montreal an hour before federal officials carrying a warrant for his arrest arrived at his suite in a fashionable hotel.

Federal officials have announced that all of the crew of the ship, which was registered at Halifax, are Canadians with the exception of two men from the United States, who have claimed they were engaged as super-cargoes.

Customs officials stated that Edward Wells of Halifax was captain of the Frederick B.

JUDGMENT IN DAVID LEW CASE. Vancouver, Oct. 7.—If David C. Lew, murdered Chinese, was alive to-day, he would rejoice over a judgment of the Court of Appeal. Lew had been awarded $10,000 damages by a Nanaimo jury against the company of Wing Lee, for malicious prosecution, but entered judgment for $5,000, which was all he claimed. The unsuccessful defendant appealed and the Court of Appeal directed a new trial, but in the meantime Wing Lee had been required to pay $5,990 and $1,700 for costs into court so the plaintiff would not lose the fruits of his judgment. David Lew was appealing the Court of Appeal's judgment to the Supreme Court of Canada.

Hockey League May Stage First Games In West on Dec. 8

No Official Word Yet From President Richardson of Western Circuit

All Teams Will Go to Post With New Faces; All Looking For New Material

Although no official announcement has been made as yet it is expected that the Western Canada Hockey League will open up for the greatest season in its history about December 8.

This will be the latest opening that the Coast fans have had to wait for for many years.

Very little has been said by any of the rival managers as to the personnel of their teams and nothing is expected until the world's baseball series is over.

There is a dicker now being made, it is rumored, between the Victoria and Saskatoon clubs.

NEW FACES ALL AROUND The teams will go to the post this winter with a number of new faces.

Special to The Times Calgary, Oct. 7.—The Calgary Tigers will report for hockey training at the Amphitheatre in Winnipeg on Nov. 17.

O'Connell Hopeful That He May Prove He Was Only 'Goat'

New York, Oct. 7.—Jimmy O'Connell, Giant outfielder, banished from baseball after confessing a part in the effort to bribe Henie Sand, of Philadelphia, to throw a game.

The crippling of the team late in the season, the letter said, worried the members about those two games, undoubtedly referring to the last two contests of the season with the Phillies, at the Polo Grounds.

O'Connell seemed heartened by the letter's insistence that he was only the "goat," as he had maintained since being cast out by Commissioner Landis.

Tilden the Terror Now Called Tilden The Tamed in East

Has Nothing to Say Over Selection of Davis Cup Doubles This Season

By JOE WILLIAMS Soon William Tilden, who is to tennis what camphor balls are to cedar chests, will go to the Coast to enter the moving picture show.

The title of his first picture ought to be "Tilden the Tamed."

A year ago the national champion was far as to tell him how to play the game. This was between sets in the Davis Cup play when Tilden and Williams were having their troubles turning back the Australians.

It was intimated further that the champion had taken into his confidence one of the dignitaries even went so far as to tell him how to play the game.

TILDEN FOUGHT BACK It will be recalled that the champion fought back savagely through the news columns, announcing that the officials would take him as he was or not at all.

Experts at the ringside agreed Tilden was entitled to the popular decision, having clearly outpointed his antagonists to the extent of no less than 49 columns of valuable newspaper space.

But that was a year ago. To-day Tilden is changing. A strange calm has settled over his angular features.

Whether the champion decided to give up the fight himself or was requested to do so is an unanswerable matter. Certainly he has just as much cause to fight now as he ever did.

THE DOUBLES TEAM This year of Tilden and Johnston was not picked until twenty-four hours before the match. This was one of the things Tilden was fighting against.

Last year he and Williams were not notified they would be the doubles team until a couple of days before the match and as a result they played miserably.

Tilden argued the doubles combination to be effective, should be picked weeks in advance, and everybody agreed with him.

When the same thing was done this year more fireworks were expected from the fiery crusader, but apparently Tilden the Terror is now Tilden the Tamed.

Opening Games of Wednesday League On Tap To-morrow

Tillipums and Teamster Elevens Meet at Royal Athletic

Three Fine Games Are Scheduled For Saturday in First Division

Wednesday League football will get away to a flying start to-morrow afternoon with two games scheduled.

Four strong teams have entered in the mid-week league this year. The Garrison, last year's winners, will not defend their laurels but a combination of army and navy players will take over the franchise and will be known as the United Services.

SCHEDULE DRAFTED The Wednesday League schedule was drawn up at a meeting of the Lower Island Football Association held last night in the Y.M.C.A.

The teams will be as follows: Hudson's Bay—P. Shrimpton, Gardiner, McKay, Obee, Fea, Anderson, Addie, Durrant, Tooby, Veitch and Stevenson.

Three fine games are scheduled for Saturday in First Division football. Two old rivals, the Wests and Wards, will fight for the honors at the Royal Athletic Park.

At Beacon Hill the Sons of England will try their luck with the Veterans. Payne will referee the first game while Alcock will handle the whistle in the second.

At Central Park Esquimaux will take on the Moose with Bridgen refereeing. The United Services hold a bye.

This is one of the finest cards that has been put on in the First Division this season and it is expected that a large crowd of fans will be on hand at the games.

Possesses Longest Stride of Any Thoroughbred

Although Epinard has not been successful in winning either of his races in the United States he has given the racing folk over there plenty of thrills and it is openly acknowledged that, if he had one of the American premier jockeys in his saddle, he would have been victorious in both his starts.

Actual measurements have shown that Epinard's stride is a fraction better than twenty-five feet. No other great runner known to the turf can show a stride to match this.

Epinard's present stride is better even than Man o' War's when the great American horse was running at the top of his brilliant form.

LOVE INTERPRETED BY DORIS KEANE IN PLAYHOUSE FILM

When I think of love in words, says Doris Keane, I always read the wonderful speech of Cavallini, the opera singer, in "Romance," which was written by the man who had bought her with a price before she knew the meaning of the word "love."

Love to me is when a woman can, after such experience, feel the highest love which comes from sacrifice, resignation—then she is ready to pour out a soul that is big enough to thrill the whole world, through her work.

SAYS PAREY ON UNEMPLOYMENT IS DEVOID OF RESULT

Sees Signs of Improvement After Summer Inactivity in Leading Industries

Denial that the recent Federal Government conference on unemployment, held to accomplish any useful result is voiced in a statement issued by J. D. McNiven, Deputy Minister of Labor, in a summary of the conclusions which he reached at the meeting.

"I see the conference has been criticized in some quarters as having had a purely negative result, but I cannot agree with such criticism," Mr. McNiven said. "The conference recognized that unemployment is a problem which presses very severely upon many excellent citizens, particularly in the winter time, and that, in so far as its rigors can be lessened by the action of governments, municipalities and private employers, such action ought to be taken."

ESQUIMALT GOES TO JOINT POLICE PLAN NOW DROTTED

That Esquimalt would await the result of action planned by the Union of B. C. Municipalities before considering seriously the proposal of a Greater Victoria police administration, was the subject of a discussion last night, with Reeve Lockley in the chair.

Memorial and gift parks in Esquimalt came in for further discussion when it was stated that the park begun this year had cost approximately $3,700 to date, but was within its appropriation by some $1,100.

NEW PAINTING FOR THE GRANGE—Gpillaume Roland—a young Breton, by Glyn W. Philpot, R.A., is now on exhibition at the Grange, having been purchased by the C.N.E. and loaned permanently to the Ontario Art Gallery. By a peculiar coincidence, the curator of the Grange, Mr. E. R. Gregg had this Summer greatly admired a very similar painting by the same author in the Tait Gallery, London.

CONTEMPT—Sir Henry McCardie (below), "strong man" of the British High Court, has cited Lord Olivier (above), secretary of state for India, on charges of gross contempt of court. The action is the outgrowth of the so-called O'Dwyer-Nair-ibet case.

WHAT'S THE ELEPHANT THINKING ABOUT—No, the elephant is not trying to climb the wall. Nor is he learning to walk a twelve-inch plank. When being unloaded from a steamer at a Hoboken, N.J., pier, Agnos, the elephant, swung up against the warehouse. She tried to stand on the beam, but a tug from the derrick engine lifted her off of it.

KEEPING HEALTHIEST CITY—Toronto leads the world in public health service. The lives of its children are protected by the systematic care of 112 public health nurses working every day of the year. Photo shows Dr. C. J. Hastings, city health officer, and two nurses on a tour of inspection.

SEEING WORLD?—Frank Roshell, fourteen, is missing from his luxurious home in New York City. Police found that he had become acquainted with a vagabond called "Hunchback" Reilly and they say "He's just tired of being babied. He's gone out to see the world, just as any kid might do." And his mother cries, "My baby, oh my baby." She refuses to believe that he has run away with a vagabond. "My baby, an associate of a cheap hunchback? Never!" she exclaims. "These persons are not in his class."

FOR NEW YORK JAYS—This admonition to jay-walkers at the corner of Forty-second Street and Fifth Avenue, the most aristocratic corner in the most sophisticated city, not only stopped jay-walking but also halted traffic the first day it was in use.

FORTY-FIVE AND HAPPY—Steve and Henry Horn, his stableman, are happy. Steve was celebrating his forty-fifth birthday in his Jersey City home when this picture was taken. Steve once worked for Dennis Cummings, but Dennis died, and left a will providing that Steve shall be kept in comfort for the rest of his life.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF SWEETHEART—Left, Fred McGaughey, who is on trial in Lindsay charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Miss Beatrice Fee, on the right. McGaughey's counsel, announced that the defence will be that accused was insane at the time of the alleged murder.

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY—The sidewalks are always too small to care for the large crowds in Nassau Street, lower New York, when the five o'clock whistle sounds going home time.

CUPID WINS—The former German kaiser and Prince Max of Baden ended their friendship when Max, one day back in 1918, told the former emperor that the war was lost. However, Cupid overcame the handicap, and Prince Wolfgang von Hessen, nephew of the kaiser, and Princess Maria Alexandra, daughter of Max, were married the other day. Picture shows them immediately after the ceremony.

UNPAID MAIL—"C.O.D." is the name of this Boston bull puppy, and "C.O.D." is being held at the Chicago post office because the man to whom it was mailed from Bellevue, Ia., refused to pay the $25 charges on it. The government must hold such packages for six months—but there is no law that provides funds for feeding uncollected mail. Miss Kathryn Sullivan of the Chicago post office made friends with "C.O.D." immediately.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

BIG OPERATORS DISAGREE ON MARKET

New York, N.Y., Oct. 7 (By R. P. Clark & Co., Ltd.)—The turnover was again small in volume, but the tone of the market in the afternoon dealings was much improved. There was no particular significance in the news developments of the day, and the market still seems to be looking for some new factors sufficient in weight to propel price movement in a definite direction. Quite true reports touching on general trade conditions as a little optimistic particularly as those emanating from steel centers. One cannot overlook the material beneficial effects that will accrue from the prices being realized on many of the important food stuff commodities. It seems to be only a question of time when the changed conditions in the important American agricultural districts will have their constructive effect of domestic trade. There has been quite a little selling of late by professionals on the idea that with constructive news falling flat and initiative by important interests lacking resistance to selling operations may be very indifferent, and as a result there is probably good reason for believing that another fair sized short interest has been built up. Much attention naturally is being directed toward the trend of things in the domestic political arena. A trading market may be in prospect for a while longer.

New York, Oct. 7 (By B.C. Bond Corporation)—The money market is interested in crop reports, requirements, but funds continue plentiful. Commercial paper market continues inactive with no rate changes. There is little activity in the stock market. Bank acceptance rates on sixty and ninety-day maturity are up 1/8. It was another dull day on the stock exchange, but the session's outcome was distinctly favorable to the constructive cause, as on all recent reactions support was forthcoming at the proper moment. Moreover, the market's disposition to turn dull as prices gave ground was more pronounced than ever. Report Chicago of heavy rain, however, and the fact that the principal item relating to the general business situation overnight. Other developments mostly concerned specific stocks, but the character of the market as a whole was unchanged in the early dealings. Southern Railway sold off, reflecting the suit instituted at Richmond, Va., by holders of the stock, who allege they are entitled to dividends before earned but not declared amounting to $15 a share on the preferred stock. No activity on the part of any distribution on the common.

Despite the nervousness aroused by the St. Paul incident, railway activity continues promising. Great Northern's report for the final week of September showed a gain of $400,000 over the same period of 1923, while preliminary estimates of the year's operations in September indicate the largest gross for that month since 1915 with the possibility that net may reach the highest aggregate of any single month in the road's history.

Excellent buying has been in Lehigh Valley and N. Y. Central on the setback. What has played an important part in the market's recent sluggishness has been the indifference of the stock exchange affairs by the outside public operators such as E. E. Smethers and others doing nothing in the market. The fact that the market has a position of 20,000 shares in Marland Oil, but has not continued his accumulation owing to the irregularity of the market, is a factor. The market has an enormous paper profit on the short side of cotton, but saw 1,500,000 of it wiped out by the rebound which followed the recent Government crop estimate. In the last few weeks, the market has interested himself in dramatic happenings on the wheat pit.

Arthur Cutten, the most spectacular trader operating on the Chicago Board of Trade, was in town yesterday. He had a long conversation with Castles over the outlook for the grain market. Jesse Livermore is another stock market factor who is now giving his exclusive attention to speculation in grain. The Chicago Board of Trade preferred bread nearly two points to sixty, and other sugar stocks were lower on unfavorable tariff reports. General Motors was offered down to a new low on the current reaction. The market is looking for a reaction, the Coolidge supporters would work harder and so obviate the probability of failure.

Not all of the floor traders were lined upon on short side, however. When Mr. Caspary buys can, he is usually supposed to be acting for First National Bank interests, and he was a heavy buyer of American Can to-day. There is a strong belief in trading circles, for example, that Cast Iron Pipe will be taken up in a big way the next few days, and that it may come to this week.

Marland Oil was under pressure, reaching new low ground on the current reaction at 2 1/2. Offerings were understood to be coming from some of the smaller nonaffiliates in the purchase of an 800,000 shares of the company. It is thought that this year Wall Street gossip was that these smaller holders had been re-

SPAN OF MAN'S LIFE BEING EXTENDED TOWARDS 100 YEARS, SAYS DR. FISK

New York, Oct. 7.—It is exactly an even chance that each person has some active, unrealized defect within him or her which can shorten his or her life. It is more than an even chance that such a defect can be corrected so as not merely to increase one's days, but to prolong your vigorous enjoyment of life.

You probably can live to be 100, and if not you, then your children and grandchildren certainly can, according to Dr. Eugene Lyman Fisk, medical director of the Life Extension Institute of New York. The Institute has charge of the work of increasing the length of life of the policyholders of most of the chief insurance companies of Canada as well as of the United States.

"Just intelligent care of yourself, without the use of any magic elixir, is all that is necessary to give a century's life span," says Dr. Fisk. Here are some of Dr. Fisk's conclusions as to what is wrong with humanity on this continent to-day: "Examination of more than 300,000 persons reveals not one who is physically perfect, and fifty per cent of our working population need important medical and physical attention."

"Most important chronic infections are above the neck. Mouth infections are present in sixty per cent of the cases examined, and head infections in eighty-five per cent. Muscular atrophy is the great menace of civilization. A physical equipment developed by climbing trees and delving in caves is used now to whirl around in an office chair. "Next to inherited health and longevity, the greatest element in prolonging life is the thorough annual physical examination," he says. "If this is followed by conscientious care, anyone can add years and years onto

Smith was in one of two planes which collided forty feet in the air while one machine was taking off and the other was landing. Three other men in the machine were seriously injured. Capt. Smith was a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. Sapp: "I've a great mind to rock the boat and frighten you." Miss Sweet: "Once before a woman man like you tried that and the boat upset." "And what did you do?" "I swam ashore and notified the coroner."

GUIDE IN ALASKA FINDS HOT SPRINGS

Discovery Made Near Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes; Water Boils

Seward, Alaska, Oct. 7.—A group of hot springs has been discovered in the vicinity of the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, a vast region of multi-form earth disturbances, 300 miles southwest of here, on the Alaska peninsula. The news came here to-day in a letter from Roy Gilley, a guide in the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes.

Mr. Gilley wrote that the new hot springs were "on the side of Trident Volcano and Katmai Pass." He said the water was boiling constantly, emitting steam voluminously, and seemed to contain much mineral.

The Surprising Sex

By MILDRED BARBOUR—A. "her of 'Love Stakes,' Etc.

Perplexing Revelations
 Mrs. Danforth's car proved to be a luxuriously fitted electric. There were fresh roses in the cut-glass flower-holder.
 "My husband declares that only old ladies and lazy people drive this sort of car," she said, with a smile. "I have met you, that it might be longer. But my husband is in the consular service and we're a couple of wandering 'epics'." She sighed.
 "When I think of the peace and quiet of the little garden in Donovan Street, with its tulip trees and the jasmine in bloom and the little pool with the lily pads, I just open my eyes wide."
 "Why—?" she gasped, "you describe it quite as if you had seen it."
 "Oh yes, I have seen it," said the other quickly. "I—it—people used to love to come there—it was so beautiful."
 "No one ever came, after I could remember," said Julie wonderingly. "No one, that is, except John and Dr. Phillips. Dad didn't care for visitors."
 "Ah, but you see, I was much before your time, my dear," was the wistful response.
 Julie spoke warmly of Mrs. Danforth the following day to Latour.
 "She is so beautiful and so kind, and she looks as though she had suffered a great deal."
 He shrugged.
 "I believe I mentioned to you before that her husband is an unpleasant person. It would not surprise me if he were cruel and faithless to her."
 "Oh what a pity, when she is so lovely! I would give anything to be like her!"
 He looked at Julie strangely.
 "No," he said sharply. "Please God, never! I pray life may not take your sweetness and freshness from you."
 Julie blushed. He seemed so greatly in earnest. She experienced a warm glow of friendliness. How comforting it was to have found a friend in a person. It would not surprise her that moment their lonely spirits met and touched. No longer was their relationship that of pupil and teacher. They had accomplished the miracle of friendship.

CONTROL OF FORCES PROCEEDS SMOOTHLY
F. Hodges Speaks of British Government's Relations With Services
 London, Oct. 7 (Canadian Press)—Describing as a foul slander against the forces the argument formerly advanced against the election of a Labour Government, that such services as the army and navy would never take kindly to receiving orders from an administration of such complexion, Frank Hodges, Civil Lord of the Admiralty, declared in a speech last night that the army of government was a mere sympathy provided it were carried on by men of clear minds and clear consciences.
 Mr. Hodges defended the army and navy against such aspersions as were cast upon them before the advent of Labor to the Government benches and indicated that matters had gone smoothly between the services and the present Government.

 Fort William, Oct. 7.—Receipts of all grain here during last week totalled 6,000,000 bushels more than those of the week before, so that in spite of shipments having risen by two and a half million bushels, stocks in store rose by approximately four million bushels, standing at a little more than five million. There was activity in barley stocks which increased during the week standing

Eggs Thrown as Church Service Held

Moose Jaw, Oct. 7.—A disturbance in the Greek Orthodox Church here Sunday night during which eggs and tomatoes were thrown, one striking the bishop, the only Ruthenian prelate in Canada, was followed by charges being laid against two women and several men. The case will be heard in police court to-day.

CAMPBELL CASE
 Colonel L. C. Amery, First Lord of the Admiralty in the Baldwin Government, at another meeting, made points against the Government for the withdrawal of the prosecution against J. R. Campbell, editor of The Worker's Weekly, who was charged with sedition. As an ex-minister he said he knew how the fullest inquiry was always made before such a prosecution was undertaken. So it could be assumed that in this case action was not taken until it was abundantly clear to Attorney-General Patrick Hastings that the publication of the alleged seditious article in the weekly constituted a deliberate incitement to the troops to mutiny.
 "From what I know of the Attorney-General's office," Mr. Amery declared, "Sir Patrick Hastings certainly knew this, or if he did not know it, he showed carelessness and incompetency that disqualified him from holding that office."

Bedtime Story
Uncle Wiggily and the Chocolate Pudding
 (By Howard R. Garis)
 "There is a chocolate pudding for you in the pantry," said Nurse Jane Fussy Wuzzy to Uncle Wiggily one morning.
 "A chocolate pudding for me? That is very fine, I'm sure," said the bunnymilk gentleman. "But I have just eaten a good breakfast of lettuce pancakes with maple sugar sauce sprinkled on them, and, though I am very fond of chocolate pudding, I don't eat it now."
 "Silly! I don't mean that you are to eat it now," laughed the muskrat lady housekeeper. "I am just telling you it is in the pantry, so you will know where to look for it at lunch time. I am going down town, shopping at the five and six-cent store, and I may not be back in time to get your lunch."
 "I shall find the chocolate pudding and eat that," said Mr. Longears.
 "And please don't buy too many diamond pianos at the five and six-cent store."
 "I'll be careful," promised Nurse Jane, and away she skipped, taking her tall with her. Uncle Wiggily sat in his hollow stump bungalow watching the clock and waiting for noon. For the more he thought of the chocolate pudding the more he wanted to eat it.
 At last the clock struck twelve, and the bunny cried:
 "Hurrah! Now for the chocolate pudding!"
 "May I have some?" asked a voice at the door.
 For a moment Uncle Wiggily thought it might be the bad Waseel coming back after having been hit in the eye with the peach stone, as he told you in the story last night. But when Baby Bunty, the cute little

DEBENTURE ISSUE WILL GO FORWARD TO LEGISLATURE

Enabling Legislation Will be Sought at Forthcoming Session

Meanwhile Motion to Submit Matter to Electors is Rescinded

By accepting the recognition of the principle of moral obligation, the City Council last evening approved of a recommendation by Mayor Hayward to seek legislation to straighten out the sterling debenture tangle.

Before doing so the council, by a vote of eight to one, decided to rescind the resolution of February 24, seeking to submit the whole matter to a vote of the ratepayers at the next election.

The Raymur letters to the Dominion Securities Corporation made the bonds payable in principal and interest at a par rate of exchange in Canada and New York, but the Dominion Securities Corporation yesterday waived its claim to the New York payment at par, Mayor Hayward informed the council, and agreed to accept New York payment in Canadian funds at the fixed rate of exchange of $4.86 2-3 to the pound sterling.

His Worship asked the council for authority to request the Legislature for certain powers to enable the council to make an adjustment of the "moral obligation," of which much had previously been heard.

The motion ultimately adopted, Alderman Andros voting no, was as follows: "That in connection with certain payments of principal and interest on debentures on which the Raymur letters are attached that the City Council apply for powers in the private bill of 1924 to pay the same on the basis of $4.86 2-3 Canadian currency per pound sterling, and on only such debentures as carry the Raymur letters, under by-laws 1195 and 1201, and that the city solicitor be instructed to carry out the necessary advertising."

EXPLAINS SITUATION

Mayor Hayward traced the involved history of the matter. He told how the problem of sterling debentures came up after the break-up of exchange after the war. The Mayor declared they were asking the public to vote on a subject upon which the council was divided. He had learned that if the electors voted such an opinion would be valueless, in the light of the city council's opinion. As far as Mr. Raymur's letter was concerned he was satisfied it was on the same footing as the letters of the late Charles Kent, then city treasurer in 1918. He believed that some authority was given. No record, however, existed to prove what had been arranged. He was satisfied after careful investigation, in the case of two by-laws the city should pay. The replies from the Dominion Securities Corporation, absolutely satisfied him that the city was "morally responsible." He had that day a telegram from the Securities Corporation which had removed some of his scruples in recommending a settlement, this message being the compromise indicated above.

He said he had changed his opinion as compared with the Spring, and in the case of two by-laws he now favored payment according to the Raymur letters, and he did not think that the council would be very much hurt by it.

He stressed the argument used by the former fiscal agents that they were never buyers of the bonds, but merely agents.

POINTS IN QUESTIONNAIRE
Answering Alderman Woodward's arguments at the earlier discussion the Mayor quoted the Dominion Securities Corporation's answers to points raised in the questionnaire. His Worship was told that the fiscal agents had not sold all bonds on the undertaking of Mr. Raymur, but it was believed that some had been sold, but no special record had been made.

He emphasized the fact that in a time of stress the fiscal agents had helped the city out of a hole, when times were critical. If things had been irregular in 1912 such had been done with the best interests of the city at heart, the Mayor thought.

In answer to Alderman Andros the Mayor said there was no evidence that the letters of Mr. Kent were in conformity with the by-law, although both Alderman Andros and Sargent thought the two circumstances were not parallel.

Resuming, the Mayor argued that the question came down to the problem of moral obligation. Alderman Woodward asked if the brokers had acquired bonds prior to the issuance of the Raymur letters? The Mayor read a clause answering the comment in the negative.

Replying to a number of questions the Mayor read from the correspondence, which was very voluminous. Alderman Andros contrasted the condition prior to the war, when the exchange went to seventeen per cent, adversely, and said that the brokers should have agreed to respect the original undertaking.

Alderman Sargent, the chairman, remarked: "Unfortunately they had the Raymur letter."

Alderman Andros: "I say not, unfortunately, because no letters, nor resolution of the council could vary the by-law."

Two aldermen wanted the amount involved to be disclosed. The city solicitor said the principal involved was $22,000, in two by-laws.

Alderman Andros—Is there no estimate? The Mayor—The comptroller has made an estimate, based on the present rate of exchange, of an annual loss for eleven years at $1,800.

Alderman Sargent and Alderman Sanger placed the figures last January between $5,000 and $6,000. The second alderman gave $6,000 as the actual figure.

"What is the interest," asked Alderman Woodward, "of the Dominion Securities Corporation in this matter?" The Mayor replied that they were still trading in Victoria bonds.

URGES GREATER THOUGHT
Alderman Sargent thought the council would have been better informed if it had received the Mayor's statement in a written document. The alderman said the Legislature would insist on the fullest advertising for such a controversial problem.

The Mayor explained his urgency in pressing to get the matter before the council in time for the session of the Legislature.

Alderman Andros said the effect would be to pay 35 cents on every pound sterling, when exchange was at $4.86 instead of $4.85 2-3.

Alderman Woodward issued a warning with regard to the possibilities of speculating with the bonds, on the part of the Dominion Securities Corporation, which at present they had not enough information.

"Why not unload the morality of the question on the people?" stated Alderman Andros, in favoring a plebiscite.

The Mayor pointed out that the question had been debated for two years and how could the electors vote intelligently.

He therefore moved, and Alderman Harvey seconded a motion to withdraw the plebiscite.

Alderman Marchant favored some compromise, and therefore necessary legislation to give effect to the proposal. He emphasized the moral responsibility, and the regret that the council of 1924 would have to correct the mistake of 1911, especially when it would cost some money. When bonds came to be issued again, would not they suffer in the rate of interest?

There were remarks questioning this statement, which Alderman Marchant reiterated.

The motion was carried by a vote of eight to one to rescind the resolution to submit the matter to the electors at the annual election.

The same motion and division was reported on the main motion. In each case Alderman Andros was alone in opposition. Alderman Todd and Ker were absent.

TO REVISE TWO CONSTRUCTION REGULATIONS

Some Aldermen Feel Building and Electric By-laws Want Scrutiny

Several aldermen expressed in City Council last evening the desire for revision of the building-law and careful revision of the proposed wiring-law before its reference to the Council.

On the former matter Alderman Sargent stated that the building-law was operating against the city's interest, and revision was urgent to curtail the limits of the fire area.

Both by-laws are to receive the attention of committees, it was resolved.

A lengthy communication from the Union of B.C. Municipalities introduced the subject of the resolution of the Union on educational matters, in relation to the provincial educational survey. The question-naire accompanying the resolution was also read to the aldermen. Fourteen questions were enumerated.

On the motion of Alderman Sargent, the subject was referred to the Legislative Committee, the Comptroller and assessor, for report to the Council.

ST. ANN'S ACADEMY TAXES
As the Court of Revision of the Assessment Roll has the matter in hand, the Council tabled for two weeks the letter filed on behalf of St. Ann's Academy asking for exemption. The argument on behalf of St. Ann's Convent had been placed before the Council in a brief by the sisterhood's solicitors, Bass & Bullock-Webster. The abstracts in two issues of The Times last week indicate the line of argument, which is that the institution carries on a large amount of orphanage work, and is exempt from taxation by statute.

CEMETERY UPKEEP
Alderman Woodward pointed out the city was taking care of the Anglican, Roman Catholic and Presbyterian sections of Ross Bay Cemetery under denominational control, and he had been unable to find out how the presiding officers reported on the matter.

Two questions were asked as to what cost was entailed, as it was stated such cost must be nominal. The motion was agreed to unanimously.

WANT MORE GLASS IN PARKS

Extension of Limited Greenhouse Accommodation in City Parks is Urgent

To take care of the plants used for decorating the standards in downtown streets, the parks and boulevards, a committee asked the City Council last evening to provide for $1,000 for attention.

Alderman Woodward said more requirements of the department. There was only a small greenhouse at Beacon Hill Park. He pointed out that next year the Park Commissioners would be here from all over the Northwest, and action was urgent.

Alderman Sargent favored the report of a proper official to recommend on cost, as the city's finances were restricted. He moved an amendment to refer the subject to the building inspector for an estimate, meanwhile tabling the report.

Alderman Marchant hoped the new greenhouse would be erected at Stadacona Park. He believed that it would be better to have the park greenhouses open more to the public, as was done elsewhere.

Alderman Woodward thought it would be better to extend at Beacon Hill, where was located the trial ground. As a matter of fact they also wanted additional glass at Stadacona Park, where the greenhouse was also full.

Alderman Woodward accepted the amendment, and thereby it became the motion, and was adopted.

REALTY BOARD SUGGESTS PARLEY

Succession Duties Act Issue Raised in Council

Realizing that the comment at the previous meeting with regard to the inaction of public bodies regarding the Succession Duties Act had linked the Real Estate Board in that criticism, the board formally conveyed its opinion to the City Council last evening.

It stated in a communication that the Succession Duties Act had been discussed at the last luncheon meeting.

It therefore recommended that the City Council should call a conference on the subject of interested persons, including delegates from the Law Society, Chamber of Commerce, the various service organizations, and the Realty Board be asked to attend so that the whole question might be debated thoroughly and representations to the Government made.

It was pointed out that the board had taken action by which certain amendments in the act were made by the Government.

It was explained that the board would be only too delighted to render any service to the City Council in this matter.

Alderman Sargent emphasized the importance of the matter, and suggested that the Mayor and Legislative Committee should decide whether a meeting as suggested ought to be favored or not.

"The matter is of utmost importance," observed Alderman Sargent. A motion on the lines of Alderman Sargent's resolution was then approved.
